SEAN F. MCAVOY, CLERK

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
EASTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff,

v.

KIMBERLY ANN BRISCHLE,

Defendant.

NO: 2:21-CR-93-RMP-1

PROTECTIVE ORDER

The United States of America, having applied to this Court for a protective order regulating disclosure of the discovery materials and the confidential information contained therein (“the Discovery”) to counsel for the Defendant, and the Court finding good cause therefore, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED:

1. The United States’ Motion for Protective Order Regulating Disclosure of Discovery and Information, ECF No. 17, is GRANTED.

2. The United States is authorized to disclose the discovery and confidential materials (hereinafter “Discovery”) in its possession pursuant to the discovery obligations imposed by this Court.

1           3.     Counsel for the Defendant shall hold the discovery materials in
2 confidence, disclosing this information to his or her client, office staff, investigators,
3 and/or witnesses (including any experts) only to the extent he or she believes is
4 necessary to assist in the defense of this matter.

5           4.     Counsel for the Defendant shall advise any person to whom the
6 discovery materials are disclosed that, pursuant to the attached Protective Order
7 (Exhibit A), the information must be held in confidence and the recipient may not
8 further disclose or disseminate the information without further order of the Court.

9           5.     Discovery in this matter will be made available to defense counsel via
10 access to a case file on USA File Exchange or through a diskette containing a copy
11 of the discovery. If necessary, to review discovery with his or her client, counsel for 12 the Defendant may download the discovery and duplicate only once. Discovery
13 materials may not be left in the possession of the Defendant. In order to provide 14 discovery to a necessary third-party vendor, consultant, and/or anticipated fact or 15 expert witness, defense counsel may duplicate the discovery only once. No other
16 copies shall be made, by defense counsel or the Defendant, without prior approval
17 from this Court.

18           6.     To the extent that defense counsel makes any portion of the Discovery
19 available in paper format to anyone, including his client, outside of counsel's office,
20 defense counsel shall ensure any and all financial account, sensitive and confidential
21 information is redacted or removed.

7. Upon entry of a final order of the Court in this matter and conclusion of any direct appeals, government personnel and counsel for defendant shall retrieve and destroy all copies of the Discovery, except that counsel and government personnel may maintain copies in their closed files following their customary procedures.

8. Government personnel and counsel for the Defendant shall promptly report to the Court any known violations of this Order.

IT IS SO ORDERED. The District Court Clerk is hereby directed to enter this Order and provide copies to counsel.

DATED August 4, 2021.
